A) 2 years

B) 4 years

C) 6 years

D) 10 years

Answer: C

Explanation: Gandhi was tried for sedition under Section 124A and sentenced to six years of imprisonment by Judge C.N. Broomfield, though he was released early in 1924 due to medical reasons (appendicitis).

120. Which faction within the Congress advocated for entering the British legislative councils to disrupt them from within after the end of the Non-Cooperation Movement?

A) The No-Changers

B) The Pro-Changers

C) The Extremists

D) The Liberals

Answer: B

Explanation: The "Pro-Changers" believed that since mass struggle was suspended, the political vacuum should be filled by entering the legislative councils and fighting the British from inside the government apparatus.

121. The Congress-Khilafat Swaraj Party (popularly known as the Swaraj Party) was officially founded on January 1, 1923, by:

A) Mahatma Gandhi and Jawaharlal Nehru

B) C.R. Das and Motilal Nehru

C) Subhas Chandra Bose and Vallabhbhai Patel

D) Annie Besant and B.G. Tilak

Answer: B

Explanation: After their proposal to enter councils was defeated at the Gaya session of the INC (1922), Chittaranjan Das (C.R. Das) and Motilal Nehru resigned from their Congress posts and formed the Swaraj Party.

122. Who was the first President of the newly formed Swaraj Party?

A) Motilal Nehru

B) C.R. Das

C) Vithalbhai Patel

D) Hakim Ajmal Khan

Answer: B

Explanation: C.R. Das (Deshbandhu) served as the President of the Swaraj Party, while Motilal Nehru became its Secretary.

123. The "No-Changers" who opposed council entry and focused on constructive work (spinning khadi, untouchability eradication) in villages included:

A) C.R. Das and Motilal Nehru

B) Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, C. Rajagopalachari, and Rajendra Prasad

C) Subhas Chandra Bose and Jawaharlal Nehru

D) Bhagat Singh and Chandrashekhar Azad

Answer: B

Explanation: These leaders firmly believed in Gandhi's original program. They argued that entering councils would corrupt Indian politicians and distract from organizing the masses at the grassroots level.

124. In 1924, Mahatma Gandhi presided over the annual session of the Indian National Congress for the first and only time. In which city was this session held?

A) Kanpur

B) Belgaum

C) Lahore

D) Calcutta

Answer: B

Explanation: The Belgaum (Karnataka) session of 1924 is historically significant as it is the only INC session ever presided over by Mahatma Gandhi. Here, a compromise was reached allowing the Swarajists to work within the councils on behalf of the Congress.

125. In 1924, a revolutionary organization called the Hindustan Republican Association (HRA) was formed in Kanpur by:

A) Bhagat Singh and Sukhdev

B) Ram Prasad Bismil, Sachindra Nath Sanyal, and Jogesh Chandra Chatterjee

C) Surya Sen and Pritilata Waddedar

D) V.D. Savarkar and Shyamji Krishna Varma

Answer: B

Explanation: Disillusioned by the sudden withdrawal of the Non-Cooperation Movement, these younger revolutionaries formed the HRA with the objective of establishing a Federal Republic of the United States of India through armed rebellion.

A) 1920

B) 1923

C) 1926

D) 1929

Answer: C

Explanation: The Act of 1926 recognized the right of workers to form unions and provided them a degree of immunity from civil and criminal prosecution for legitimate union activities.

133. In November 1927, the British Government announced the appointment of the Indian Statutory Commission, which is popularly known as:

A) The Cripps Mission

B) The Cabinet Mission

C) The Simon Commission

D) The Hunter Commission

Answer: C

Explanation: It was chaired by Sir John Simon. Its purpose was to review the working of the Government of India Act 1919 and recommend further constitutional reforms.

134. Why did almost all Indian political parties decide to boycott the Simon Commission?

A) It proposed to partition India.

B) It did not include a single Indian member.

C) It recommended banning the Indian National Congress.

D) It sought to increase the salt tax.

Answer: B

Explanation: All seven members of the commission were British Members of Parliament. Indians felt deeply insulted that foreigners were solely deciding the future of India's constitution without any Indian representation.

135. Which session of the Indian National Congress, held in 1927, officially passed the resolution to boycott the Simon Commission "at every stage and in every form"?

A) Lahore session

B) Calcutta session

C) Madras session

D) Bombay session

Answer: C

Explanation: The Madras session of 1927, presided over by Dr. M.A. Ansari, officially decided to boycott the commission. This session also adopted a resolution declaring complete independence as the ultimate goal.

A) Sarojini Naidu

B) Margaret Cousins

C) Annie Besant

D) Muthulakshmi Reddy

Answer: B

Explanation: Margaret Cousins founded the AIWC in Poona to promote women's education and eventually expanded its scope to advocate for women's social and legal rights.

137. When the Simon Commission landed in Bombay on February 3, 1928, they were greeted with nationwide strikes and the famous slogan:

A) Quit India

B) Simon Go Back

C) Inquilab Zindabad

D) Do or Die

Answer: B

Explanation: The slogan "Simon Go Back" became the unifying cry of the protests. Black flags were shown wherever the commission traveled in India.

138. In October 1928, while leading a peaceful anti-Simon Commission protest in Lahore, which prominent leader was brutally beaten by the police and later succumbed to his injuries?

A) Bal Gangadhar Tilak

B) Bipin Chandra Pal

C) Lala Lajpat Rai

D) C.R. Das

Answer: C

Explanation: Lala Lajpat Rai ("Punjab Kesari") was severely injured by a police lathi charge ordered by James A. Scott. Before dying, he famously declared, "The blows struck at me today will be the last nails in the coffin of British rule in India."

139. In 1928, under the leadership of Chandrashekhar Azad and Bhagat Singh, the Hindustan Republican Association (HRA) changed its name to:

A) Abhinav Bharat

B) Hindustan Socialist Republican Association (HSRA)

C) India Independence League

D) Naujawan Bharat Sabha

Answer: B

Explanation: Meeting at the Feroz Shah Kotla ruins in Delhi, the young revolutionaries added "Socialist" to their name, reflecting their shift toward Marxist ideals and a classless society, not just political independence.

140. In December 1928, Bhagat Singh, Shivaram Rajguru, and Sukhdev Thapar assassinated a British police officer in Lahore to avenge the death of Lala Lajpat Rai. Who did they assassinate?

A) James A. Scott

B) General Dyer

C) John P. Saunders

D) W.C. Rand

Answer: C

Explanation: They originally intended to kill James A. Scott, the officer who ordered the lathi charge on Lala Lajpat Rai. However, in a case of mistaken identity, they shot and killed John P. Saunders instead.

141. The successful Bardoli Satyagraha of 1928, a major peasant movement against an unjust 22% increase in land revenue, was led by:

A) Mahatma Gandhi

B) Jawaharlal Nehru

C) Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel

D) Vinoba Bhave

Answer: C

Explanation: Vallabhbhai Patel's exceptional organizational skills during this movement forced the British government to back down and reduce the tax increase to a mere 6.03%.

142. It was during the Bardoli Satyagraha that Vallabhbhai Patel was given the title "Sardar" (Leader). Who bestowed this title upon him?

A) Mahatma Gandhi

B) The women of Bardoli

C) The British Viceroy

D) Subhas Chandra Bose

Answer: B

Explanation: The peasant women of Bardoli, deeply impressed by his leadership and dedication, affectionately started calling him "Sardar." Gandhi subsequently popularized the title.

143. Challenged by the British Secretary of State (Lord Birkenhead) to draft a constitution acceptable to all Indians, an All-Parties Conference appointed a committee in 1928. Who chaired this committee?

A) Mahatma Gandhi

B) Jawaharlal Nehru

C) Motilal Nehru

D) Tej Bahadur Sapru

Answer: C

Explanation: Motilal Nehru chaired the committee, and the resulting document became known as the Nehru Report. It was the first major attempt by Indians to draft a constitutional framework for themselves.

144. The Nehru Report (1928) demanded which of the following as the primary political goal for India?

A) Complete Independence (Purna Swaraj)

B) Dominion Status

C) Provincial Autonomy only

D) Partition of India

Answer: B

Explanation: The report demanded Dominion Status (like Canada or Australia) within the British Commonwealth. It also demanded fundamental rights, universal adult suffrage, and rejected separate communal electorates.

145. Who strongly opposed the Nehru Report's demand for "Dominion Status" and instead demanded "Complete Independence"?

A) Mahatma Gandhi and Motilal Nehru

B) Jawaharlal Nehru and Subhas Chandra Bose

C) Muhammad Ali Jinnah and Aga Khan

D) Sardar Patel and Rajendra Prasad

Answer: B

Explanation: The younger, radical leaders of the Congress—Jawaharlal Nehru and Subhas Chandra Bose—felt Dominion Status was a step backward. In response, they formed the "Independence for India League" to push for complete severance of British ties.

146. In response to the Nehru Report, Muhammad Ali Jinnah rejected it and formulated his own political demands in 1929, famously known as:

A) The August Offer

B) Jinnah's 14 Points

C) The Lahore Resolution

D) The Direct Action Plan

Answer: B

Explanation: Jinnah felt the Nehru Report did not adequately protect Muslim minority rights. His 14 Points demanded a weak central government, retention of separate electorates, and one-third representation for Muslims in the central legislature.

147. To resolve the conflict over the Nehru Report within the Congress, Mahatma Gandhi proposed a compromise at the 1928 Calcutta session. What was the compromise?

A) The Congress would immediately launch an armed rebellion.

B) The Congress would accept Dominion Status if the British granted it within one year; otherwise, they would demand Purna Swaraj.

C) The Congress would dissolve itself and form a new party.

D) The Congress would accept Jinnah's 14 Points.

Answer: B

Explanation: Gandhi gave the British government an ultimatum: accept the Nehru Report and grant Dominion Status by December 31, 1929, or the Congress would launch a civil disobedience movement for Complete Independence.

148. On April 8, 1929, two revolutionaries threw harmless smoke bombs into the Central Legislative Assembly in Delhi to protest against the draconian Public Safety Bill and Trade Dispute Act. Who were they?

A) Bhagat Singh and Batukeshwar Dutt

B) Chandrashekhar Azad and Ashfaqulla Khan

C) Ram Prasad Bismil and Surya Sen

D) Sukhdev and Rajguru

Answer: A

Explanation: The objective was not to kill, but "to make the deaf hear." They did not flee the scene; instead, they courted arrest while shouting "Inquilab Zindabad" (Long Live the Revolution) to use the courts as a platform for their ideology.

149. After his arrest in the Assembly Bomb Case, Bhagat Singh and his comrades undertook a historic hunger strike in jail. What were they demanding?

A) Their immediate release

B) The right to be treated as political prisoners rather than common criminals

C) The abolition of the death penalty

D) The immediate departure of the British from India

Answer: B

Explanation: They demanded decent food, reading materials, and to not be forced to do hard labor, fighting for the dignity and rights of political prisoners.

150. Which young revolutionary died on September 13, 1929, after an epic 63-day hunger strike in Lahore jail, sparking massive nationwide grief?

A) Batukeshwar Dutt

B) Sukhdev

C) Jatin Das

D) Bhagwati Charan Vohra

Answer: C

Explanation: Jatindra Nath Das (Jatin Das) refused to break his fast despite severe force-feeding attempts by the British. His martyrdom galvanized the youth of the country and brought massive attention to the revolutionaries' cause.

Batch 4: 1929 to 1934 (Questions 151 - 200)

151. The historic 1929 Lahore session of the Indian National Congress, where the demand for Purna Swaraj was formalized, was presided over by:

D) Subhas Chandra Bose

Answer: C

Explanation: Passing the baton to the younger generation, Mahatma Gandhi backed Jawaharlal Nehru for the presidency. This session marked a decisive shift toward complete severance of British ties.

152. At the 1929 Lahore Session, what was officially declared as the ultimate goal of the Indian National Congress?

A) Dominion Status

B) Purna Swaraj (Complete Independence)

C) Provincial Autonomy

D) A separate electorate for minorities

Answer: B

Explanation: The Congress rejected the Nehru Report's goal of Dominion Status and passed the Purna Swaraj resolution, declaring that they would no longer be satisfied with anything less than complete independence.

153. On the midnight of December 31, 1929, Jawaharlal Nehru hoisted the newly adopted tricolor flag of Indian independence on the banks of which river?

A) Ganga

B) Yamuna

C) Ravi

D) Sutlej

Answer: C

Explanation: Amidst massive enthusiasm and shouts of "Inquilab Zindabad," the flag was unfurled on the banks of the Ravi River in Lahore to symbolize the dawn of a new era.

154. Following the Lahore session, which date was observed as the first "Independence Day" (Purna Swaraj Day) all over India?

A) August 15, 1930

B) January 26, 1930

C) March 12, 1930

D) April 13, 1930

Answer: B

Explanation: The Congress asked the nation to celebrate January 26, 1930, as Independence Day by taking a pledge. This is the historical reason why January 26 was later chosen as Republic Day in 1950.

155. In April 1930, a daring raid was executed on the police and auxiliary forces armories in Bengal. Who led the famous Chittagong Armoury Raid?

A) Surya Sen

B) Jatin Das

C) Chandrashekhar Azad

D) Bhagat Singh

Answer: A

Explanation: Surya Sen, affectionately called "Master Da," organized the Indian Republican Army (Chittagong Branch) and led this brilliant, albeit ultimately unsuccessful, armed rebellion against British armories.

A) Jawaharlal Nehru

B) Subhas Chandra Bose

C) Winston Churchill

D) Motilal Nehru

Answer: B

Explanation: Subhas Chandra Bose made this comparison to highlight the dramatic and inspiring nature of the march, which captured the imagination of the entire nation and the world.

159. On which date did Mahatma Gandhi reach Dandi and technically break the salt law by picking up a handful of salt?

A) March 31, 1930

B) April 6, 1930

C) May 1, 1930

D) April 13, 1930

Answer: B

Explanation: On the morning of April 6, 1930, Gandhi boiled seawater to make illegal salt, officially launching the nationwide Civil Disobedience Movement.

160. Why did Mahatma Gandhi choose 'salt' as the symbol of protest for the Civil Disobedience Movement?

A) It was the most expensive commodity.

B) The British requested him to do so.

C) It was a basic necessity for everyone, making the tax universally oppressive.

D) It was only consumed by the wealthy.

Answer: C

Explanation: The salt tax affected everyone from the richest to the poorest. By choosing a daily necessity, Gandhi found an issue that united the entire population against the British monopoly.

161. In Tamil Nadu, who led a salt march from Trichinopoly (Tiruchirappalli) to Vedaranyam on the Tanjore coast in April 1930?

A) K. Kamaraj

B) C. Rajagopalachari

C) S. Satyamurti

D) Subramania Bharati

Answer: B

Explanation: C. Rajagopalachari (Rajaji) organized the Vedaranyam salt satyagraha in the south, mirroring Gandhi's Dandi march.

162. In the Malabar region (Kerala), who organized the salt satyagraha marches?

A) E.M.S. Namboodiripad

B) K. Kelappan

C) P. Krishna Pillai

D) A.K. Gopalan

Answer: B

Explanation: K. Kelappan, a prominent Congress leader and social reformer in Kerala, led salt marches from Calicut to Payyanur.

163. After Gandhi's arrest in May 1930, the leadership of the Dharasana Salt Works satyagraha temporarily passed to Abbas Tyabji, and after his arrest, to:

A) Jawaharlal Nehru

B) Sarojini Naidu

C) Maulana Azad

D) Kasturba Gandhi

Answer: B

Explanation: Sarojini Naidu led a massive, peaceful march on the Dharasana salt pans. The brutal police beatings of the non-violent marchers shocked the international community.

164. Which American journalist's eyewitness account of the police brutality at Dharasana brought global condemnation upon the British government?

A) Louis Fischer

B) William Shirer

C) Webb Miller

D) Edgar Snow

Answer: C

Explanation: Webb Miller, writing for United Press, reported the horrific, unresisting beatings of the satyagrahis, which played a crucial role in turning world opinion against British rule in India.

165. In the North-West Frontier Province (NWFP), the Civil Disobedience Movement was spearheaded by Khan Abdul Ghaffar Khan. What was the name of his volunteer organization?

A) Khudai Khidmatgars (Servants of God)

B) Khaksar Tehrik

C) Anjuman-i-Watan

D) Jamaat-e-Islami

Answer: A

Explanation: Also known as the "Red Shirts" due to the color of their uniforms, the Khudai Khidmatgars were a strictly non-violent Pashtun movement deeply committed to Gandhi's ideals.

166. During a massive protest in Peshawar in April 1930, soldiers of which British Indian Army regiment famously refused to fire on the unarmed Khudai Khidmatgar protesters?

A) The Sikh Regiment

B) The Gurkha Rifles

C) The Garhwal Rifles

D) The Punjab Regiment

Answer: C

Explanation: Soldiers of the Garhwal Rifles, led by Chandra Singh Garhwali, refused to fire upon the unarmed crowd, showcasing a significant crack in the loyalty of the British Indian Army.

167. Who led a revolt against the British in Manipur and Nagaland during the Civil Disobedience Movement, and was given the title "Rani" by Jawaharlal Nehru?

A) Rani Lakshmibai

B) Rani Gaidinliu

C) Pritilata Waddedar

D) Matangini Hazra

Answer: B

Explanation: Gaidinliu joined the Heraka religious movement and led a revolt against the British at the age of 13. She was arrested in 1932 and sentenced to life imprisonment, only being released after independence.

168. To discuss the constitutional reforms proposed by the Simon Commission, the British government convened the First Round Table Conference in London in:

A) November 1929

B) November 1930

C) March 1931

D) September 1931

Answer: B

Explanation: The First Round Table Conference opened on November 12, 1930. It was a historic occasion as it was the first time Indians and British met as equals to discuss India's future.

169. Did the Indian National Congress participate in the First Round Table Conference?

A) Yes, represented by Gandhi.

B) Yes, represented by Nehru.

C) No, they boycotted it.

D) No, they were not invited.

Answer: C

Explanation: The INC, being at the height of the Civil Disobedience Movement and with most of its leaders in jail, boycotted the first conference, rendering its outcomes largely meaningless.

170. Who was the British Prime Minister during the Round Table Conferences?

A) Winston Churchill

B) Clement Attlee

C) Ramsay MacDonald

D) Neville Chamberlain

Answer: C

Explanation: Ramsay MacDonald of the Labour Party chaired the First and Second Round Table Conferences.

171. Realizing that constitutional reforms were impossible without the Congress, the British Viceroy signed a pact with Mahatma Gandhi on March 5, 1931. This is known as:

A) The Poona Pact

B) The Lucknow Pact

C) The Gandhi-Irwin Pact

D) The Desai-Liaquat Pact

Answer: C

Explanation: Lord Irwin, the Viceroy, agreed to release political prisoners not convicted of violence and permit peaceful picketing, while Gandhi agreed to suspend Civil Disobedience and attend the Second Round Table Conference.

172. Under the Gandhi-Irwin Pact, what concession did the British make regarding salt?

A) They abolished the salt tax entirely.

B) They allowed coastal villages to make salt for personal consumption.

C) They allowed the Congress to sell salt.

D) They banned the import of foreign salt.

Answer: B

Explanation: The government did not abolish the salt tax, but they conceded the right of people living along the sea coast to manufacture salt for their own use, not for commercial sale.

173. Who referred to Mahatma Gandhi and Lord Irwin as "The Two Mahatmas" upon the signing of their pact?

A) Winston Churchill

B) Sarojini Naidu

C) Jawaharlal Nehru

D) Lord Mountbatten

Answer: B

Explanation: Sarojini Naidu used this term to reflect the equal footing and spirit of compromise between the British Viceroy and the Indian leader.

174. A dark shadow was cast over the political atmosphere when Bhagat Singh, Sukhdev, and Rajguru were executed by the British on:

A) January 26, 1931

B) March 23, 1931

C) April 13, 1931

D) August 15, 1931

Answer: B

Explanation: Despite widespread appeals and hopes that Gandhi could negotiate their commutation during the Gandhi-Irwin talks, the British went ahead with the executions for the murder of J.P. Saunders.

175. Six days after the executions, a special session of the INC was held to endorse the Gandhi-Irwin Pact. Where was this session held in March 1931?

A) Lahore

B) Karachi

C) Bombay

D) Calcutta

Answer: B

Explanation: The Karachi session was tense, as the youth were angry about the executions of Bhagat Singh and his comrades. Gandhi was greeted with black flags upon his arrival.

176. Who presided over the historic 1931 Karachi Session of the INC?

A) Mahatma Gandhi

B) Jawaharlal Nehru

C) Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel

D) Subhas Chandra Bose

Answer: C

Explanation: Sardar Patel presided over this crucial session which not only endorsed the Gandhi-Irwin Pact but also passed landmark resolutions defining what Swaraj would mean for the masses.

177. The Karachi Session (1931) is famous for passing two historic resolutions on:

A) Complete Independence and Boycott of Councils

B) Fundamental Rights and National Economic Programme

C) Partition of India and Separate Electorates

D) Support for World War II and the Quit India Movement

Answer: B

Explanation: Drafted primarily by Jawaharlal Nehru, these resolutions outlined a progressive socio-economic vision for independent India, including free speech, universal adult franchise, and state control of key industries.

178. Mahatma Gandhi attended the Second Round Table Conference in London in September 1931. He traveled on a ship named:

A) SS Rajputana

B) SS Komagata Maru

C) HMS Beagle

D) INS Vikrant

Answer: A

Explanation: Gandhi traveled to London aboard the passenger liner SS Rajputana as the sole official representative of the Indian National Congress.

179. The Second Round Table Conference ended in failure primarily due to a deadlock over which issue?

A) The timetable for British withdrawal

B) The division of the British Indian Army

C) The representation of minorities and separate electorates

D) The financial debt owed to Britain

Answer: C

Explanation: Gandhi argued that the INC represented all of India, but leaders representing Muslims, Depressed Classes, and Princes demanded separate electorates and safeguards, which Gandhi vehemently opposed.

180. Upon returning to India empty-handed from the Second Round Table Conference in early 1932, what action did Mahatma Gandhi take?

A) He agreed to separate electorates.

B) He retired from politics.

C) He resumed the Civil Disobedience Movement.

D) He launched the Quit India Movement.

Answer: C

Explanation: Finding the new Viceroy (Lord Willingdon) highly repressive, the Congress Working Committee decided to resume the Civil Disobedience Movement. The government responded immediately by arresting Gandhi and banning the Congress.

181. In August 1932, British Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald announced the "Communal Award." What was its most controversial provision?

A) It partitioned Punjab and Bengal.

B) It granted separate electorates to the Depressed Classes (Dalits).

C) It banned the Indian National Congress permanently.

D) It removed voting rights for women.

Answer: B

Explanation: While Muslims, Sikhs, and Christians already had separate electorates, extending this to the Depressed Classes was seen by Gandhi as a British ploy to divide Hindu society and permanently fragment the nationalist movement.

182. How did Mahatma Gandhi protest against the Communal Award while imprisoned in Yerawada Jail?

A) He wrote letters to the British Queen.

B) He organized a jailbreak.

C) He commenced a "fast unto death."

D) He resigned from the Congress.

Answer: C

Explanation: On September 20, 1932, Gandhi began a fast unto death, forcing Indian leaders to desperately find a compromise that would save his life while addressing the concerns of the Depressed Classes.

183. The crisis created by the Communal Award and Gandhi's fast was resolved by an agreement in September 1932 known as the:

A) Gandhi-Ambedkar Pact

B) Poona Pact

C) Yerawada Agreement

D) Lucknow Pact

Answer: B

Explanation: It was signed in Poona (Pune) between Dr. B.R. Ambedkar (representing the Depressed Classes) and Hindu leaders acting on behalf of Gandhi.

184. Under the terms of the Poona Pact, Dr. B.R. Ambedkar agreed to abandon the demand for separate electorates. In return, what was granted to the Depressed Classes?

A) A separate geographical state

B) Reserved seats within the general Hindu electorate

C) Guaranteed jobs in the British civil service

D) Exemption from all taxation

Answer: B

Explanation: Instead of voting in completely separate constituencies, the Depressed Classes would vote with the general population, but a certain number of legislative seats were strictly reserved for their candidates.

185. The Poona Pact increased the number of reserved seats for Depressed Classes in the provincial legislatures from the 71 promised by the Communal Award to:

A) 100

B) 147

C) 200

D) 250

Answer: B

Explanation: To secure Ambedkar's agreement to joint electorates, the number of guaranteed reserved seats was more than doubled, ensuring better representation while maintaining social unity.

186. The Third Round Table Conference was held in London in November 1932. Which of the following is true?

A) It was heavily attended by Congress leaders.

B) It resulted in immediate independence for India.

C) It was boycotted by the Indian National Congress.

D) Mahatma Gandhi attended but walked out.

Answer: C

Explanation: With the Civil Disobedience Movement officially resumed and most Congress leaders in jail, the INC did not attend. The conference was short and poorly attended by major Indian political figures.

187. The discussions of the three Round Table Conferences eventually led to the publication of a "White Paper" in 1933, which formed the basis for:

A) The Indian Independence Act 1947

B) The Cripps Mission

C) The Government of India Act 1935

D) The Cabinet Mission Plan

Answer: C

Explanation: The British Parliament drafted a new constitution based on the Round Table Conference outcomes, which was enacted as the Government of India Act 1935.

188. Following the Poona Pact, Mahatma Gandhi temporarily shifted his focus from political agitation to social reform. In 1932, he founded the:

A) All India Spinners Association

B) All India Harijan Sevak Sangh

C) Servants of India Society

D) Ramakrishna Mission

Answer: B

Explanation: Gandhi founded the Harijan Sevak Sangh to eradicate untouchability, promote education, and improve the living conditions of the Depressed Classes, whom he began calling "Harijans" (Children of God).

189. In 1933, to promote his anti-untouchability campaign, Mahatma Gandhi started a weekly journal named:

A) Young India

B) Navajivan

C) Harijan

D) Indian Opinion

Answer: C

Explanation: Published in English (Harijan), Hindi (Harijan Sevak), and Gujarati (Harijan Bandhu), this journal became his primary platform for social reform until his death.

190. Due to declining participation and government repression, Mahatma Gandhi officially suspended the Civil Disobedience Movement in:

A) 1932

B) 1933

C) 1934

D) 1935

Answer: C

Explanation: In April 1934, Gandhi formally withdrew the movement, believing that the masses were exhausted and could no longer sustain the struggle against the severe ordinances of the Willingdon administration.

191. Disillusioned by the withdrawal of the Civil Disobedience Movement, younger, radical, and Marxist-leaning Congressmen formed the Congress Socialist Party (CSP) in 1934. Who were its prominent founders?

A) Jawaharlal Nehru and Subhas Chandra Bose

B) Jayaprakash Narayan and Acharya Narendra Dev

C) M.N. Roy and S.A. Dange

D) C.R. Das and Motilal Nehru

Answer: B

Explanation: Formed within the Indian National Congress, the CSP aimed to push the Congress toward socialist policies and a more radical approach to achieving independence.

192. Who was elected as the first President of the Congress Socialist Party (CSP)?

A) Jayaprakash Narayan

B) Ram Manohar Lohia

C) Acharya Narendra Dev

D) Aruna Asaf Ali

Answer: C

Explanation: Acharya Narendra Dev served as the President, while Jayaprakash Narayan (JP) served as the General Secretary of the newly formed CSP.

193. In January 1934, a massive natural disaster struck India, prompting Gandhi to remark that it was a divine chastisement for the sin of untouchability. What was the event?

A) The Bengal Famine

B) The Bihar Earthquake

C) The Bombay Plague

D) The Madras Cyclone

Answer: B

Explanation: The devastating 1934 Nepal–Bihar earthquake killed thousands. Gandhi's statement linking the natural disaster to the social evil of untouchability drew sharp criticism from rationalists like Rabindranath Tagore.

194. In January 1934, the British finally executed which prominent revolutionary leader, who had been in hiding since the 1930 Chittagong Armoury Raid?

A) Surya Sen

B) Chandrashekhar Azad

C) Batukeshwar Dutt

D) Ashfaqulla Khan

Answer: A

Explanation: Surya Sen ("Master Da") was betrayed by an insider, brutally tortured, and hanged by the British in January 1934.

195. Which famous female revolutionary, associated with Surya Sen's group, consumed cyanide to avoid arrest after leading a successful raid on the Pahartali European Club in 1932?

A) Kalpana Datta

B) Bina Das

C) Pritilata Waddedar

D) Usha Mehta

Answer: C

Explanation: Pritilata Waddedar led the attack on the club, which had a signboard reading "Dogs and Indians not allowed." Wounded during the attack, she swallowed cyanide to avoid capture.

196. At the 1934 INC session in Bombay, who resigned from the Congress, stating fundamental disagreements with its members over the concepts of non-violence and spinning?

A) Jawaharlal Nehru

B) Subhas Chandra Bose

C) Mahatma Gandhi

D) Sardar Patel

Answer: C

Explanation: Feeling that many Congressmen treated non-violence as a political tactic rather than a fundamental creed, Gandhi formally resigned from the INC in October 1934 to dedicate himself entirely to constructive village work.

197. After Gandhi's resignation in 1934, who emerged as the primary political leader of the Indian National Congress through the late 1930s?

A) Maulana Abul Kalam Azad

B) Jawaharlal Nehru

C) C. Rajagopalachari

D) Dr. Rajendra Prasad

Answer: B

Explanation: Though Gandhi remained the supreme moral guide, Nehru's popularity soared, and he became the intellectual and political face of the Congress, pushing for socialist planning and a firmer anti-imperialist stance.

198. The Government of India Act 1935 proposed to replace the dyarchy in the provinces with:

A) Complete Independence

B) A Military Dictatorship

C) Provincial Autonomy

D) A Presidential System

Answer: C

Explanation: Under the 1935 Act, the provinces were freed from "superintendence, direction" of the Secretary of State and Viceroy to a large extent. Indian ministers responsible to the provincial legislatures were given control over provincial administration.

199. The Government of India Act 1935 proposed the establishment of an "All India Federation" consisting of:

A) Only British Indian Provinces

B) British Indian Provinces and Princely States

C) Only Princely States

D) India, Burma, and Ceylon

Answer: B

Explanation: The Federation was supposed to unite the British provinces and the princely states. However, it never came into existence because the requisite number of princely states refused to join.

200. Under the Government of India Act 1935, which territory was officially separated from India in 1937?

A) Ceylon (Sri Lanka)

B) Burma (Myanmar)

C) Nepal

D) Bhutan

Answer: B

Explanation: The Act legally separated Burma from the British Indian Empire, establishing a separate administration for it starting in 1937.
